HKSF is recognized by The Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) as an institution for providing Continuous Professional Training (CPT) Program. This luncheon is qualified for 1 CPT hour.

As the recognized institution approved under SFC's CPT Program, the 1 CPT hour of this luncheon is to receive due recognition from the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme Authority (MPFA) as non-core CPD hours.

As a participant in the CFA Institute Approved-Provider of Continuing Education Program, the Hong Kong Society has determined that the above event qualifies for credit for the CFA Institute Continuing Education Program. Eligible for 1 CE credit hour.

“2010: The Scent of Danger”

Stock markets around the globe recovered strongly last year. Can equity prices further advance this year? Or are they poised for a double bottom? HK SFA is pleased to have invited Mr. Chris Roberts, Head of Asian Technical Strategy of Mizuho Securities Asia Limited, to present his views at this luncheon. Mr. Chris Roberts will explore with the audience on the topic “2010: The Scent of Danger”, a technical look at Asian stockmarkets as well as some practical advice on how he uses technical analysis and what charts really mean.

About the Speaker:

Mr. Chris Roberts
Head of Asian Technical Strategy
Mizuho Securities Asia Limited

Mr. Chris Roberts has spent most of the past 30 years in Asia as a broker, fund manager and analyst. During that time he has been employed by the E D & F Man Group, Merrill Lynch, HSBC and CLSA. A co-founder of the Technical Analysts Society of Hong Kong in 1987, he has frequently been voted Asia money's best regional technical/quantitative analyst by institutional investors.
