Target a Deep Pool of Highly Qualified Job Candidates

The CFA Institute Career Center provides employers and recruiters with access to a global job board created exclusively for CFA® charterholders, members, and CFA Program candidates, bringing highly sought-after investment professionals looking for their next career opportunity together with employers seeking top talent in the industry.

Access the CFA Institute Network of More Than 250,000 Investment Management Professionals

Employers and recruiters can search the resume database independently to source applicants and build a talent pipeline. Posting your position on the CFA Institute Career Center will alert every member and candidate within our rapidly expanding network who has expressed an interest in opportunities requiring the specific knowledge, skills, and abilities you desire. You can post internship opportunities at no cost.

Find Local and Global Talent

Our niche job board helps you comprehensively view up-to-date local and global talent markets for your positions of need. Because all CFA charterholders have completed the rigorous CFA Program and are required to follow the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, you won't have to sift through applicants who don't meet your own high standards.

Save Time and Money on Training with Curated Career Resources

As a career-development hub for CFA charterholders, members, and CFA Program candidates, the CFA Institute Career Center is visited by motivated individuals who aren't just looking for a job—they're seeking out opportunities to better themselves. Our career resources provide guidance for our constituents across the span of their careers and encourage the pursuit of professional development.
